

South of Scotland TREC Disclaimer

- I understand that riding at any standard has inherent risks and that all horses may react unpredictably on occasions
- I may fall off and could be injured. I accept that risk.
- I understand that instructions are given for my safety and agree to follow instructions given to me by those in authority, ie, instructors, judges and volunteer helpers.
- I understand that wearing an appropriate riding hat of TREC GB current recommended safety standards and a body protector of TREC GB current recommended safety standards may reduce the severity of an injury should an accident happen and agree that I will always wear a riding hat, correctly fastened whilst riding and leading a horse and I understand that it is my choice whether or not I wear a body protector other than where mandatory wearing is required and advised.
- I understand that the organiser will make decisions based on the information I give them and agree to always be honest and volunteer information about
My abilities as a rider
Any previous riding accidents
Any medical condition(s) which may affect my ability to ride
- I understand that children are at particular risk around horses and agree that I will keep any children that I am responsible for under close supervision.
- I understand that competing carries enhanced risks over and above general riding and agree that if I choose to participate in any competition or event, it is up to me to ensure that I have the experience and ability to ride the course including any jump which may form any part of it. If I am in doubt, I will use my judgement and experience and not enter or attempt anything beyond my capability or experience.
